Building Practitioner Registration

The holder of this certificate is granted registration in their prescribed occupation under the section 45(1) of the Design and Building Practitioners Act 2020. The registration will continue until the date of expiry stated above. Building Commission NSW may reinstate any cancelled or suspended registration or waive any such condition if it thinks it appropriate in the circumstances.

If any of your circumstances change or you become aware of certain events as outlined in clause 46 of the Design and Building Practitioners Regulation 2021, you must notify Building Commission NSW within 7 days after becoming aware of the event.

What are my obligations as a Registered Practitioner?

As a practitioner registered under the Design and Building Practitioner Act 2020, you will be required to follow a set of prescribed conditions. These are detailed in Division 2 (36) of the Design and Building Practitioner Regulations 2021.

These conditions include:

- you must continue to hold the class of licence that was required to satisfy the qualification requirements for the class of registration under Schedule 2 in which you are registered
- you must comply with the code of practice:
  a) for a prescribed practitioner - set out in Schedule 4, Part 2, Division 1, or
  b) for a registered professional engineer - set out in Schedule 4, Part 2, Division 2.

Registrations in the fire system classes of Design Practitioner issued in accordance with Pathway 1 clause 94 of the regulations, must also comply with the requirements and conditions in clause 94 (3), 94(4) and (94)5.

A Design Practitioner - Architectural registration holder must be fully registered as an architect within the meaning of the Architects Act 2003 and be recorded as a practising architect in the register maintained by the Registrar of the NSW Architects Registration Board constituted under that Act.

What are my obligations as a Professional Engineer?

As a practitioner registered under the Design and Building Practitioner Act 2020, you will be required to follow a set of prescribed conditions. These are detailed in Division 2 (37) of the Design and Building Practitioner Regulations 2021.
These conditions include:

a) you must continue to hold the recognition or registration under a recognised engineering body's recognition or registration scheme, or
b) you must continue to hold the recognition or registration by a professional body of engineers that operates with a professional standards scheme.

Continuing Professional Development (CPD)

It is a condition of registration, that you must keep written records specifying how you have satisfied the CPD requirements for each year of registration. You must maintain the records for at least five years and be able to provide written copies of the records if requested.

For more information visit the Building Commission NSW site for CPD Guidelines.

Disclaimer

The information contained in this public register is limited to information which the Commissioner for Fair Trading is required to maintain under section 120 of the Home Building Act 1989 and clause 69 of the Home Building Regulation 2014. The search you have performed relates only to the licensee listed above. You may need to perform other searches to obtain a more complete history of a particular licensee. For example: Where you have searched for an individual licensee but that individual is also a director or nominated supervisor of another licensee, you may wish to request a licence search in relation to that licensee, or where you have requested a search of a licensed company, you may wish to undertake further searches of any individual licences held by the directors or nominated supervisor.

While the Commissioner for Fair Trading endeavours to ensure information in the public register is accurate, this may not always be possible. Consequently, no warranty is given as to the accuracy of content and users should not rely upon it. There may be other information relating to a licensee that is not disclosed in this search, for example details of insolvencies and bankruptcies. You may wish to conduct searches with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) on company matters, the Australian Financial Security Authority (AFSA) on personal matters, the New South Wales Civil and Administrative Tribunal or State and Federal Courts on civil proceedings. The Commissioner for Fair Trading encourages you to also make your own enquiries with the licensee or registered practitioner. The Commissioner for Fair Trading cannot and does not guarantee the work of licensees or registered practitioners.
